ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Firstly, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to the Management of Loyola College, Chennai, our respected Principal and Chairman, Rev. Dr. Louis Arokiaraj A SJ, the Coordinator of the Department of Commerce (Shift II), Prof. Charles Jail Singh, and our Major Skill Course faculty members, Dr. Y. Alexander and Prof. Nishanth Arul Dominic, Assistant Professors, Department of Commerce, for granting me permission to undertake this one-month internship. Their continuous encouragement and academic support motivated me to gain practical exposure beyond theoretical learning.

I would like to extend my heartfelt thanks to Kandan and Nambi Chartered Accountants for providing me with the valuable opportunity to complete my internship in their firm. The internship helped me understand how an audit firm functions and how accounting and financial activities are handled in a professional environment.

I sincerely thank the Partners of the firm for giving me the opportunity to observe and learn about real-time accounting work, audit procedures, and client-related activities. Their professional guidance helped me connect classroom concepts with practical applications.

My special thanks to my Internship Work Guide for patiently guiding me throughout the internship period. With their support, I was able to learn basic accounting tasks, document verification, GST-related work, and preparation of simple financial statements. I also thank the staff members for their cooperation and assistance.

The internship experience has been highly beneficial in improving my practical knowledge and understanding of the subject.
